The region includes the Muslim País more populated in the world, very prominent Buddhists and Christian communities, highly significant hindows and animists. For a long time it has been a favorite corner of the world for balloon cable backpackers, known for its perfect beaches, tasty kitchen, low prices and good connections The pairs of Southeast Asiatic represent a totally different culture for Western travelers. Instead of cathedrals, you will find temples. Instead of cold and snow temperatures in the winter, mostly they will be danced in a tropical climate. They can find simple accommodations in remote fishing villages, but also luxurious five -star hotels in the most large cities and in the most popular islands. Southeast asiest will attract active travelers and adventurers, who want to travel the smoking jungles, dive in some of the best coral reefs in the world, camp or rafting hook in new rivers. But the region also offers something less active travelers who, after a day of visiting temples and other cultural sites, just want to relax comfortably in a luxury hotel. A general description of the best places to visit in the Southeast Assistant: 29. Votiane [see map] James .antrobux / Flickr Vientiane, the capital of Laos, is located in the Río Mekong near the border with Thailand. Sihanoukville [see map] and Struplor / Flickr Cambodia, Cambodia's most popular beach destination, Sihanoukville, is where the United States fought in its last battle in the Vietnam War. Although none of the Sihanoukville beaches would qualify as the best of Southeast Asia, it is a great place to relax after visiting all the Jemer ruins in the rest of the country. The beaches are popular among a variety of travelers, from backpackers that stay in huts on the beach to those who prefer the luxury of five-star hotels. The snorkel is popular in some of the islands on the high seas. See also: The best beaches in Sihanoukville 27. SAPA [see Map] Located in the remote northwest of Vietnam, Sapa is a quiet city used as a base for walking in the surrounding mountains, rice tours and visiting traditional villages and hill tribes. In the city of Sapa, there are attractive French colonial sites worth visiting, while the various ethnic tribes in the area often meet in the city market to sell their handicrafts, which are excellent memories. 26. Perhentian Islands [see Map] Adamina / Flickr Perhentian Islands are a small group of beautiful coral islands on the northeast coast of Malaysia, not far from the Thai border. The two main islands are the perhentian besar and the perhentian kecil ( large and small perhentian). Kecil attracts more travelers, as it has a cheaper accommodation, while Besar serves more families and those who want to avoid the scene of the backpacker party. 25. Hanoi [View map] Greg Hayter / Flickr Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam, combines the charm of the Old World with a pace of life that accelerates to measurethis old city is modernized. visitors can see locals taking lessons from Tai-Chi in the park in the mornings, while skaters approach. in the heart of Hanoi is its old room, aMuseum of historic Asia and French colonial architecture that has remained largely intact. The ancient temples and art museums share the list of attractions with museums dedicated to the Vietnamese revolution and military history. Accommodation: where to stay also in Hanoiese: Top Hanoi Attractions 24. Vang Vieng [View map] Vang Vieng is a picturesque city north of Vientiane which is known for its limestone karst formations. Located in the Nam Song River, the city is surrounded by Karst Hills, making it very picturesque. This city of 25,000 people is popular among the backpackers who come to Tube and Kayak in the river. Visitors also like to walk, explore caves and climb rocks on the hills. Textiles are a popular purchase. Accommodation: where to stay in Vang Vieng 23. Phuket [see map] Anol Bhattacharya / Flickr known for its beautiful beaches and excellent diving, Phuket is the largest island in Thailand and the most popular destination outside Bangkok. With resorts, hotels, shops, restaurants and vibrant nightlife, Patong Beach is the most popular beach. Phuket is also a place for maximum relaxation and we measure with its many options ranging from beach massage tents to world-class spa resorts in stunning environments. The main peak of the mountain can be climbed easily by a person with a good physical condition, and requires no mountaineering equipment although climbers must be accompanied by guides at all times. For those with limited time or energy, there are gardens and many short walks through the jungle to enjoy in the vicinity of the entrance. 11.ÁAkomodo National Park[SEE MAP] Komodo National Park is located on an archipelago near the island of Flores. The islands are populated by thousands of giant lizards known as eÁAÁKomodo dragonsÁÁA because of their appearance and aggressiveness. This is the only place in the world where these lizards, the largest in the world, can be found. Although attacks are very rare, Komodo dragons have been known to attack humans. 10.ÁÁSingapore[SEE MAP] Singapore, a city-state, lies at the south end of the Malay Peninsula just 137 km (85 miles) above the equator. Chinese are the predominant ethnic group, at 75 percent of the population. Travelers will hear residents speaking a variety of languages: Mandarin, English, Malay and Tamil.
